- b) Proof in the form of verifiable documents that the skill transfer to a South African or Permanent Residence was completed during the four (4) years of the visas as per the initial undertaking;
- c) The ICT visa application will be considered as a new application with no accumulation nor continuation of the validity period of the current visa;
- d) The ICT visa shall not lead towards permanent residence; and that
- e) The ICT holder will remain in the employment of the designated employer for whom the initial and current ICT visa was issued.
- f) No change of employer, status or condition from current visa.

This temporary visa concession is only applicable to holders of legally issued intra-company visas and who are currently resident in the Republic during the lockdown. Any further extension or modification or amendments to the terms of this concession will only be valid if communicated in writing.
